

Catch the Reading Wave at Lithgow Library

Summer Reading Program and Events

All events at 10 a.m.

Free and open to the public, first come, first served, while supplies last

June 24 “The Sun’s Sister,” Puppet Show by Milkweed Puppet Theater

Join us in the Reading Room for this colorful fairytale from Lapland about friendship and the world of the sky. This lively tale is a lot of fun, all the while asking without words, “What does it take to make a new day?”

July 1 Message in a Bottle Scavenger Hunt

You are lost on the Isle of Lithgow. Your only hope of survival is to follow the clues found washed up on various shores. Seek your fortune by joining us in this daring mission while exploring the library. Younger children will require assistance. Meet in Youth Services to begin the hunt!

July 1 Prize books will be available to pick out today!

July 8 Tye-Dye

Bring a shirt or other article of clothing to tye-dye. This program will be held outside, weather permitting. There will be no rain date.

July 15 Ocean in a Bottle and Lei Craft

Make your own ocean in a bottle and flowery lei in Youth Services.

July 22 Luau!

Come to a fun luau in Youth Services. Enjoy traditional foods along with the more unusual, including a sushi bar.

July 29 Ocean Touch Tank, featuring Valencia Schubert of the Children’s Discovery Museum

Have a hands-on experience with some creatures from Maine's coast. The tank will be set up in Youth Services.

August 5 Wildlife and Water by Chewonki

Whether water is underground or in the sky, animals will always depend on it for their survival. Chewonki will bring mounted and a few live, non-releasable animals to show the unique adaptations required for life around water. This program is appropriate for kindergarten-adult and will be held in the Reading Room.

August 12 End of Summer Reading Celebration

There’s still time to finish, but in the meantime enjoy some ice cream and activities in Youth Services and celebrate your accomplishments so far!

August 14 Pool Party by Invitation

The first 50 participants (swimmers ages 6+) who meet their goal of 25 hours will be invited to a pool party at the Augusta YMCA on August 14th. Ticket is required for entry.
