Build-A-Book

2023 Friends of Lithgow Library Summer Concert Series presents:

World Famous Grassholes

Monday, June 26 at 6:30 p.m.

Lithgow Library's front lawn

The World Famous Grassholes are a 5-piece bluegrass band based in Maine. Part of a long legacy of performers that goes back to 2000, the Grassholes currently feature Heather Kahill on fiddle, Merrill Marsh and Sam Pfeifle on guitars, Flann O'Brien on the stand-up bass, and Field Rider on Banjo and harmonica.

Bring a chair and a picnic and enjoy free concerts on the front library lawn. In case of rain, the concerts will be held in the Community Meeting Room.

Check the Library's website for a full schedule, or grab one of our bookmark schedules at the Library.

Lithgow Library is now accepting donations for The Friends of Lithgow Library Book Sale.

We gladly welcome donations of gently used books, audios, music cds and DVDs for the sale!

Donations will be accepted on Mondays & Thursdays only. We accept all items except: magazines, textbooks, encyclopedias, condensed books, and books that are falling apart.

The book sale will be August 3 - 5. Times to be announced at a later date.

Silent Library

Monday, June 26 from 4-5 p.m.

Teen Room

Exercise your Super Self Control by watching your friends do ridiculous challenges and DON'T LAUGH. We'll be offering a series of challenges aimed to be the funniest thing since that kid was duct taped to a ceiling while playing video games. (IYKYK) Your job is to do your best to not make any noise, or there will be a penalty challenge for you! (Prizes for the winners of each round).

College Prep: Dorm Essentials

Tuesday, June 27 at 3 p.m.

Feeling a little unprepared for whatever awaits you in the dorms? We'll give some top tips and tricks to help make your move into the dorms a little more comfy for you (and for your dormmates!)

Know Your Rights When Buying A Used Car In Maine

Buying a used car can be a stressful experience and sometimes things can go really wrong! This presentation will walk you through the process to help you prepare, know what to look out for at the dealership, protect your rights, and know what options you might have if things go sideways.

Ashley E. Smith, Consumer Advocate and Paralegal at Pine Tree Legal Assistance, will be presenting this session at the Library as a part of Pine Tree Legal's Know Your Rights series.

Monthly Gardening 101:

Pollinator-Friendly Gardens

Planning a pollinator garden, especially one that uses native plant species, can be broken down into four essential steps: providing food, water, shelter, and a safeguarding habitat. These steps support pollinators so they can thrive.

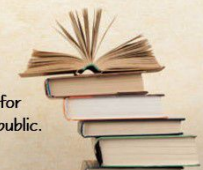

Join Laurie Bowen, Program coordinator for the UMaine Cooperative Extension Pollinator-Friendly Garden Certification program for a discussion on planning a pollinator friendly garden.

Tuesday, June 20 from 6 - 7:30 p.m.

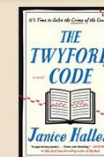

Registration required.

Please inquire at the Reference Desk.

Lithgow Book Club

A monthly book discussion group for adults that is free and open to the public. Reserve your copy today!
