"Embracing Hygge for Simple, Joy-Filled Living" with Lisa Luken

September 14 from 6:30-7:30 p.m.

Zoom registration link: <https://networkmaine.zoom.us/j/7585492021GNNMTZzNqVnDqNp5xN7CdIn>

Have you heard the term "hygge" and wondered what it is? Do you need a fresh perspective on how to enjoy and savor the fall and winter seasons? If so, join Simple Living Coach & Consultant, Lisa Luken for this program. Lisa will illustrate what hygge is and where it's from, she'll share why it's important for happiness and she'll teach how to create and embrace it in your life year-round. Walk away with new insights and ideas that will help you create a simpler, more joy-filled life.

Lisa Luken, ACC, of Simple Joy Living, LLC, is a life and leadership coach and consultant. Lisa is on a mission to empower women around the globe to live and lead with joy. She speaks, writes, and leads workshops and retreats on the topics of joyful living, women's leadership, business development and creating sustainable livelihoods, rural tourism, slow travel, and more.

Introducing Ready to Read Bags in Youth Services

These easy to checkout bags filled with pre-selected reading materials are great if you don't know what to read next or need to check out several titles quickly. Each bag comes with 4 to 6 books that follow themes such as 'Bedtime Stories,' 'Early Reader Series,' 'Harry Potter Readalikes,' 'Staff Favorites,' and more! Thanks to the Friends of Lithgow Library for their generous donation that supports this service.

Banned Books and Censorship for Teens

Monday, Sept. 27th at 3 p.m.

Are you reading something you shouldn't be? Join Lithgow Public Library and the 1st Amendment Museum to kick-off Banned Books Week (Sept. 26th through Oct. 2nd) with this thought-provoking and interactive virtual program for teens (ages 13-18). We'll play games and discuss censorship in relation to the 1st Amendment, challenged and banned books, and how libraries proactively respond to censorship and bias. Join us on Zoom by registering on our website or calling the library to sign-up!
